

About PPI

PPI was founded in 2003 as a 'think/do tank' that focuses on research [1] and action [2] at the intersection of production/consumption and waste management issues.

Who We Are [3]

Meet the Board [4] who advises and guides our work, and the Team [5] that makes it happen every day.

Our Research [6]

PPI's original research is proving to be a crucial component to discussions and debates about producer responsibility for product and packaging waste.
